Sir,

With reference to official memorandum no 7579/L7543 dated 4th January 1897, I have the honor to state that the land of Narasimma Pundit and his son Linga Pundit was at first valued at Rs 1000/- by Messrs D. Sitaram Rao A. Narasimma Iyengar and A. Rangasami Iyengar and paid to the owners The petitioners not being satisfied with the valuation fixed, petitioned to the Palace Controller to show them some Concession. Therefore Mr A Rangasami Iyengar the then Deputy Commissioner allowed the petitioners as a matter of grace to graze their cattle in the land for one year and to remove for their own use not more than 20 young graft mango Canto of not more than 4 or 5 years standing and two old mango trees which were not required for shade. The petitioners however not being satisfied even with the concession again petitioned to the Palace Comptroller asking for further payment, and he recommended their case to the favourable consideration of the Deputy Commissioner. Then the matter was referred to the Vice President for his opinion. Mr. A. Kuppasami Modaliar the then Vice President No. 1 in conjunction with Mr. Amblay Amiah Arnolth valued the land at Rs 1350/- taking into their consideration the nature and extent of the land and value of trees and wells contained with. The Deputy Commissioner agreeing with this opinion caused a further payment of Rs 350/- to be made to the petitioners who received it without any objection. The records connected therewith are submitted herewith for the perusal of the Government.

The humble petition of Narasimha Pandit and his son Singa Pandit residing in Sanderpet Mysore.

Sheweth petitioners above named beg to state as follows:—

That the garden appurtenant the garden called Krishnagra garden in Mysore, situated on the old road leading to Chamundi Hill was originally owned by Sowcar Dobbe Canyama of Mysore and subsequently transferred to them

That the garden contains three substantial ponds constructed at a cost of about 450 Rs, the whole land which was full of deep pits and densely grown with thorny jungle shrubs was levelled and cleared and a portion measuring four acres being rendered fit for wet cultivation, and the remaining portion measuring 4 acres. 8 guntas being planted up with Cocoanuts. Arecanuts 500 plantains and grafts mangoes and some mangoes. The garden further adorned in various other fruit trees and flower creepers and plants, the whole being in a very flourishing Condition and for many a Considerable Source of income to the Petitioners who Pay great Rent every year for this Mysore ent.

That the Palace Controller informed the Petitioners in June 1893 that they should give up this garden as His Highness the Maha Raja would be greatly inconvenienced in Raising the Dodda here Race Course.

That when this Your Excellencies Petitioners who are Second to none in their Loyalty and Love to their Sovereign gave up the garden at once, representing that they were deeply involved in debt to the extent of Rs 3500 and praying that Compensation as the Rate allowed to neighbouring owners of Land might be granted to them.

That when the Petitioners received Rs 1000 on the 24th June 1893, for the 1st instalment, His Highness the Maharaj Expressioned the Petitioners above the garden referred to. The Petitioners having represented the above circumstances. His Highness the Maharaja Pleased to Order the Petitioners to Recover the Amount at the rates given given to the neighbouring Lands.

That the Palace Controller and the Deputy Commissioner after a long

Correspondence for more than one year gave the Petitioners only Rs 1350 in two instalments, one of Rs. 1000 and the other of Rs 350 of their own accord, much less than the lowest estimated value of the garden viz 2929 Rupees or not even at the rate of 100 times the assessment of the land as paid for the neighbouring lands. and not at all sufficient to afford them any relief from the difficulty they were put to by the loss of the garden.

That all the garden measures 8 acres and 8 guntas assessed to Government Revenues at Rs 28-11-0.

That one Kanthi Thoray Gowda, Another Pabel Rangay Gowda of Kanne Gowden Koppal and Several others were paid 100 times the assessment of their lands, though they are very much inferior to that of your excellency's Petitioners.

That the garden of your Excellency's Petitioners was worth Rs 4000 and they beg to submit that if the acquisition had been made under the Land Acquisition act, they would have got not only the market value but also 15 per cent on the market value in addition of the Compulsory nature of the Acquisition

The humble petition of Narasimha Pandit and his son Singa Pandit residing in Sandepet, Mysore:—

The petitioners above named beg to state as follows:—

That the garden opposite the garden called Krishnaggra garden in Mysore, situated on the old road leading to Chamundi Hill was originally owned by Sowcar Motte Rangamma of Mysore, and subsequently transferred to them—

That the garden contains three substantial ponds constructed at a cost of about 450 Rs, the whole land which was full of deep pits and densely grown with thorny jungle shrubs was levelled and cleared and a portion measuring four acres being rendered fit for wet cultivation and the remaining portion measuring 4 acres, 8 guntas being planted up with cocoanuts, areca nuts, 500 plantains and graft and sour mangoes. The garden further abounded in various other fruit trees and flower creepers and plants, the whole being in a very flourishing condition and forming a considerable source of income to the petitioners who spent great deal every year for its improvement.

That the Palace Controller informed the petitioners in June 1893 that they should give up this garden, as otherwise His Highness the Maharaja would be greatly inconvenienced in passing to the Doddakere race course.

That upon this, Your Excellency's petitioners who are second to none in their loyalty and love to their Sovereign, gave up the garden at once, representing that they were deeply involved in debt to the extent of Rs3500 and praying that Compensation at the rate allowed to neighbouring owners of land might be granted to them.

That when the petitioners received Rs1000 on the 24th June 1893 for the 1st instalment, His Highness the Maharaja questioned the petitioners about the garden referred to. The petitioners having represented the above circumstances His Highness the Maharaja pleased to order the petitioners to receive the amount at the rates given to the neighbouring lands.

That the Palace Controller and the Deputy Commissioner after a long and tedious correspondence for more than one year gave the petitioners only Rs 1350 in two instalments, one of Rs1000 and the other of Rs 350 of their own accord, much less than the lowest estimated value of the garden viz 2929 rupees or not even at the rate of 100 times the assessment of the land as paid for the neigh-bouring lands, and not at all sufficient to afford them any relief from the difficulty they were put to by the loss of the garden.

That all the garden measures 8 acres and 8 guntas assessed to Government revenue at Rs 28-11-0.

That one Karoolli Boray gowda, another Patel Range Gowda of Kanné Gowdan Koppal and several others were paid 100 times the assessment of their lands, though they are very much inferior to that of your Excellency's petitioners.

That the garden of Your Excellency's petitioners was worth Rs 4000 and they beg to submit that if the acquisition had been made under the Land Acquisition Act they would have got not only the market value but also 15 per cent on the market value in addition of the compulsory nature of the acquisition.

That your Excellency's petitioners have a large family to support, and they relied on this garden which represented a life long labour as a service of wealth and subsistence to them and a means of discharging their debts.

That your Excellency's petitioners beg to represent that they had submitted applications on the 26th October 1894 and 29th May 1895 respectively to Your Excellency's address.

Your excellency's petitioners most humbly pray that proper commensation maybe ordered tobee awarded to them -

{ in reply to their petitions ending with Regd. No. 1062 dated 23rd October 1897, praying for enhanced compensation on account of their garden at Mysore taken up for public purposes. ——— " ———"

On a perusal of the papers connected with the case, it is found that the Petitioners have, in the first receipt executed by them on the 24 June 1893, acknowledged the payment to them of Rs 1000/- in full and complete discharge of their claim for purchase money; that on a further representation they were allowed by the Dy. Commr. as a matter of grace, to graze their cattle on the land during 1893-94, and to remove therefrom a certain number of mango-plants; and that, as they were unable to enjoy these concessions, a further money payment was recommended by the Palace Comptroller, and a sum of Rs 350/- accordingly paid to them on the 22nd June 1894. The acceptance of the above sums, knowing that they were in each case intended to be final payments, debars the Petitioners from seeking a fresh settlement, since if they thought the same were insufficient, there was nothing to prevent their refusing to give up their land except in accordance with the Land Acqn Regln. The price already paid is at the same time reported to be quite adequate. Under these circumstances the present claim of the Petitioners for further payment is rejected as groundless.
